

Posting of Student Information

How will parents know that, as principal, I can collect and post personal student information?

This can be done through your Boards annual notification form included in school handbooks/agendas, posted online and through school newsletters. Click here for the Simcoe County District School Board (SCDSB) sample of routine use and/or disclosures of student personal information.